Just a Reminder:

During this season, many of us try to pack a long list of errands and tasks into our days. Sometimes we overextend ourselves and get cranky! As you face your to-do list, don't forget to schedule peaceful activities with your child (like reading and sitting in front of the lighted Christmas tree) and remember to give yourself enough time while running those errands so that you aren't late and stressed out when you pick up your child.

Happy Birthday!!!!

Our Singing Mission!

On Tuesday, December 1, the children will sing some songs for the United Methodist Women. The UMW has been very supportive of our preschool and prays for each preschool child throughout the year. This is our little gift back to them. If your child doesn't come on Tuesdays and would like to sing, our "performance" starts at 11:30
